Questions 1 - 5 : Read the excerpt from A very Old Man with Enormous Wings and answer the questions that follow. 5x1=5

His only supernatural virtue seemed to be patience. He was quite patient when the hens pecked at him, searching for the parasites in his wings. He was patient again when the cripples pulled out his feathers to touch their limbs with. He remained patient when even the most merciful threw stones at him. After all, they were only trying to get him to rise so that they could see him standing.

It so happened that during those days there arrived in the town a travelling show. The main attraction was a woman who had been changed into a spider by a burst of thunder and lightning. The admission fee to see her was less than the fee to see the angel. So, the people flocked to see her. They were also permitted to ask her all manner of questions about her absurd state.

1. Who pecked at the angel while searching for parasites in his wings ?

2. Why did the people prefer the spider-woman over the angel ?
   (A) The spider-woman offered a clear, dramatic story that the people could understand.
   (B) The admission fee to see her was less, making her more accessible to the crowd.
   (C) The people felt a moral responsibility towards the angel.
   (D) The spider-woman never interacted directly with the visitors.

3. What does the angel's patience in the face of mistreatment suggest ?
   (A) He loved people ill-treating him.
   (B) Society's respect for the supernatural.
   (C) A quiet, enduring form of virtue unrecognized by most people.
   (D) His desire to leave the town.

She calls out to the man on the street.
He can see she's been crying,
She's got blisters on the soles of her feet
She can't walk but she's trying
Oh, think twice, cause it's another day for
You and me in paradise.
Oh, think twice, it's just another day for you,
You and me in paradise.

6. Who does the woman call out to ?

7. What does the line "She can't walk but she's trying" suggest about the woman's character ?

(D) She is very strong and healthy.

8. Why does the lyricist repeat the expression 'think twice' in the song ?

9. Identify the refrain in the extract.

10. (A) Read these lines from the poem Mirror, and write an appreciation of the lines focusing on the theme and the poetic techniques. 1x5=5
Now I am a lake. A woman bends over me,
Searching my reaches for what she really is.
Then she turns to those liars, the candles or the moon.
I see her back, and reflect it faithfully.
She rewards me with tears and an agitation of hands.
I am important to her. She comes and goes.
Each morning it is her face that replaces the darkness.
In me she has drowned a young girl, and in me an old woman
Rises toward her day after day, like a terrible fish.

(B) Write a paragraph comparing and contrasting the themes of the two poems.

The Seedling (Paul Laurence Dunbar)	It Couldn't Be Done (Edgar A. Guest)
Little folks, be like the seedling, Always do the best you can; Every child must share life's labour Just as well as every man. And the sun and showers will help you Through the lonesome, struggling hours, Till you raise to light and beauty Virtue's fair, unfading flowers.	There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done, There are thousands to prophesy failure, There are thousands to point out to you one by one, The dangers that wait to assail you. But just buckle in with a bit of a grin, Just take off your coat and go to it Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

Questions 11 - 14 : Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow. 4x1=4

Life without Limbs, Life without Limits

Nicholas James Vujicic was born in Melbourne, Australia, in 1982 with Tetra- Amelia syndrome, a rare disorder characterised by the absence of all four limbs. Facing immense physical challenges and bullying, Nick grappled with feelings of worthlessness and severe depression. He even contemplated suicide at the age of ten.

However, his parents' love ignited faith in him and gave him the desire to live. He realised that his story could inspire others. Displaying incredible perseverance and resilience, he learned to perform daily tasks independently. He graduated from university, thus proving that physical limitations do not define one's potential.

At the age of 17, Nick began motivational speaking, transforming his disability into a powerful platform to inspire others. He has since become a globally renowned inspirational speaker, travelling to over 60 countries and founding the NGO Life without Limbs . He emphasises that fear is the greatest disability, not physical impairment, and advocates that life's challenges can be transformed into strengths. He is the author of bestsellers such as Life Without Limits and has appeared in the film Soul Surfer .
In 2012, he married Kanae Miyahara, and together they have four children.
